WHO ARE WE?

Gen Y comes of age: Well-educated young workers, some of whom are still completing their education, are employed in professional and technical occupations, as well as sales and office and administrative support roles. These residents are not established yet, but striving to get ahead and improve themselves. This market ranks in the top 5 for renters, movers, college enrollment, and labor force participation rate. Almost one in five residents move each year. More than half of all householders are under the age of 35, the majority living alone or in shared nonfamily dwellings. Median household income is still below the US. Smartphones are a way of life, and they use the internet extensively. Young and Restless consumers typically live in densely populated neighborhoods in large metropolitan areas; over 50% are located in the South (almost a fifth in Texas), with the rest chiefly in the West and Midwest.

OUR NEIGHBORHOOD

- One of the youngest markets: More than half the householders under age 35; median age 29.8.
- Primarily single-person households (Index 163) with some shared households (Index 201).
- Highly mobile market, beginning careers and changing addresses frequently.
- One of the top 5 renter markets (Index 233).
- Apartment rentals popular: 44% in 5–19 unit buildings (Index 487), 27% in 20+ unit buildings (Index 318).
- Majority of housing built in 1970 or later (84%).

SOCIOECONOMIC TRAITS

- Education completed: More than two out of three have some college, an associate’s degree, or a bachelor’s degree or higher. Almost 14% are still enrolled in college (Index 175).
- Labor force participation rate is exceptionally high at 75.0%.
- These careful shoppers are aware of price and demonstrate little brand loyalty.
- Like to be the first to try new products, but prefer to do research before buying the latest electronics.
- Most of their information comes from the internet and TV rather than traditional media.
- Carry their cell phone everywhere they go.
